And I say unto you this day, if there are few or there are many in your presence, I am still with you; I am here with you, so give all to Me now—your praises, your thoughts, your pain, everything—give it to Me now, afresh; where two or three are gathered, I am present; I am here. I gather you together in My arms; I give you comfort; I give you peace; I give you joy! I'm here! I'm here! I'm here! I'm present!

It seems that you're walking in deep mud and times are difficult right now, but I'm saying that I'm with you; I have never left you, so, keep walking, lift up your foot, shake off the mud and walk. The way is before you. It's not always going to be a comfortable walk, but I am with you and I will always be with you. So, stand firm in every situation that comes your way, knowing that it comes from Me.

I would say unto thee, Come walk with Me, I have a few things to say to you and I will whisper those in your ear; Come walk with Me.

I saw a huge battleship pull up out front of the church. A bell rang and a man stood at the top saying, "All Aboard!" The people left the church and went aboard. The ship pulled away with all the people waving goodbye.
