

CHURCH PROPHECIES & VISIONS from Michele Clay

9-8-2024

For I do teach you to wait, My people; I am teaching you to wait by the day-to-day things; I teach you. I teach you to lean upon Me with all of your strength so that I can fill you with My strength. Day-by-day I am teaching you; I am teaching you to wait. It doesn't mean time—waiting on time—time waiting on Me—it means waiting before Me, being still before Me and I am teaching you, My people, day-by-day.

For I hear the prayers that come from your heart through these songs; I hear every utterance that you give to Me. I hear them; I hear them loud and clear. I will do that work in you as you honor Me each day by your name, by your nature, as you yield unto Me, I will do that work in you. I will bring the testings and the tryings; I will bring the purging fire. I will bring them all to you to honor My name by your nature that is being changed, and your heart is being cleansed. Your heart is being purified as you cry out to Me for that testing and that trying, because that is what brings that purifying fire and that purified heart that I desire and that I know you desire because I hear the cries, the prayers that come to Me through your songs this morning.

For I do accept your surrender. I do accept the sacrifices as you can see that are needed to surrender to Me; there are other things that maybe aren't surrendered, but I accept, for now, those things that you can surrender. I will accept those things that you will see further on. I will accept all of your surrender and eventually, eventually, even today, I would accept all full surrender of yourself unto Me; completely yielded unto Me.

4-7-2024

For I would say that the “stronger” that you need each day is not in yourself; it is in Me; it is in Christ alone; it is in your Father. That is the “strong” that is in you each day, to be more and more dependent upon Me. That is the strength that you need, to fall on your knees in dependence on Me every moment of every day. That is the “stronger” that you need.

3-3-2024

For I hear your praise; it is good to Me. I hear your heart; it is good to Me. Exalt Me; humble yourself and I will be your God and ye shall be My people.

9-3-2023

For I say to you that you will know the cost; you will know the cost when you lay your life down each day. You will know the cost of losing your life; you will know the cost of laying it down for Me.

8-20-2023

For I would say unto you, that you are to touch the hem of My garment and I would say that My garment is low. I would say that with your hand you can touch the hem of My garment. That means that you are low, you are bowing to Me, you are yielding to Me, you are submitting to Me—not as a tyrant; I am not a tyrant that you should submit to Me, but with your love come to Me, touch the hem of My garment with your hand. You can reach out and touch that garment; you can be whole in body, soul and spirit.

7-2-2023 Vision

As I was lifting up a man in prayer, I saw him sitting at a desk. I then saw the Lord's hand come upon his shoulder. As the man got up from the desk and he went about his day, I saw the hand of the Lord upon his shoulder wherever he went.

I then saw various other children of our Canton Body. I saw the same hand of the Lord upon them as they went about their days. I felt the Lord was speaking to us all, "If you engage with Me, I will draw you to Myself and I will drive out the enemies little by little. I will deliver the enemies into your hand and you shall drive them out from before thee. These things that are surrounding you are for My purpose of drawing you to Myself. Look to Me."

I was then reminded of the scripture from Exodus 23: 20-33.

6-25-2023

For I say unto you, if you do make Me your fortress, you will never be shaken. You must make Me your fortress; don't make your own money, your own stability, your own confidence in yourself. Do not make that your fortress; make Me your fortress and you will never be shaken.

5-7-2023

For I do want you to come to Me just as you are; that is the only way that you can come to Me—just as you are. I want you not to come to Me with any façade, with any pretense. With nothing—I want you to come to Me empty—just as you are.

4-23-2023

It is well with your soul; it is well with your soul. I will appear in those who look for My appearing. I will appear in you each day as you look for My appearing. It is well with your soul when My appearing appears in you; it is well, it is very well with your soul.

4-23-2023

For I do not require of you to be stronger in your own strength each day. I do not require it of you to be strong; I require it of you to be weaker, and weaker and weaker each day so that My life can fill your life and then the strength comes from Christ. I do not require you to be stronger in your strength, but in Mine.

4-23-2023

For Christ is your life this day. Christ is your life; all other things are death. Christ is your life. As you bow before Me this day, I will fill you with the life that is Christ. All other things are death; Christ is your life this day.

4-9-2023

Oh yes, I have rolled that stone away from your heart; I am rolling that stone away from your heart; and I will yet roll that stone away from your heart. Release yourself unto Me, and I will raise you up dayby-day in My resurrection, in the power of My life. You lay yourself down, as I did, and I will raise you up; I will be the one who raises you. Give yourself fully to Me.

9-11-2022

For I will have My own way, as you wait upon Me, and as you yield to Me, I will have My way. I ask that you come to Me with open arms, that you come to Me with bended hearts, come to Me humbly and I will have My way. I can only have My way when you do those things, when you yield, when you present yourself. Will you come to Me with humble hearts and bended hearts? It doesn't have to be bended knees; bended hearts are what I ask of you.

9-2-2022 – VISION

I saw a nest with baby birds. Some of the babies had their mouths wide open and others were just looking around the nest and outside of the nest. Those who were not looking, didn't even see the worm that was being dropped down to them.

7-30-2022 - VISION

As I was just about to go to sleep, I saw a very large cruise ship that was sinking into what looked like the earth. All of the ship was sunk, except for the smoke stacks that were the highest points of the ship. It looked as though the ship was nose-diving right into the earth; I saw no water. Along the edge of the earth where the ship was sinking, I saw a group of people dressed in very bright, neon colors. These colors were very prominent and seemed to stand out to me. The people were walking along the earth's edge and each person was holding onto the same large nautical rope, which was not attached to the ship. It appeared as though the people wanted to save the ship, but there was just no way that they could do anything to help. They all stopped walking and stood there together, holding onto the rope and watching the ship sink.

6-26-2022

For I will lead you on. I will lead you on; will you follow? Will you yield yourself unto Me that you would follow Me, as I lead you on in the way? The way IS narrow; the way IS the truth, and that is the path that I would have you walk on. I will make the path to where your feet will dance. I will make the path to where your joy will be in your heart, no matter what the circumstances are around you. I will give you light feet;

I will give you happy feet; I will give you joyful feet that you will dance and that you will praise Me, even in the midst of a storm, even in the midst of fires; I will give you that joy; I will give you that dance that dances within every cell of your body. Will you follow me? I will lead you on. I need followers.

5-29-2022

I have paid the price; I have sacrificed as the Lamb of God, but I ask that you now be that lamb of God; I ask that you offer, that you sacrifice, so that you can be that lamb of God, so that you can be manifested and so that you can bring your brothers, your sisters, those you want to fight for, that you can bring them to Me. I ask you to be the lamb of God; I ask you to offer as a sacrifice and surrender yourself, in the fight, to Me; for Me.

5-22-2022

For I would say to you, My thoughts are above your thoughts, and I'm asking you to bring your thoughts in line with My thoughts. In some ways, your thoughts are way beneath what I would have for you; your thoughts are not excelling where I feel that they should be excelling. And then, there are some whose thoughts are way above what they are and what they should be. I ask that you bring your thoughts in line with My thoughts; your ways in line with My ways. Open your heart to Me so I can show you what are My thoughts and My ways. Don't close Me off in any form and in any way; open your heart to Me.

5-13-2022

I am going to ask each of you to lay down your thoughts, your ideas, of how things should be. I am your God and I will bring forth that which is needed. If you will lay your life down, I will bring forth the man that I have desired since before time. Trust Me, my son. Trust Me.

For I say unto you, I am the Lord thy God. If you want more desire for Me, come to Me, ask from Me the desire I can give you for Myself; ask for that desire from Me and you will find. I give you the desire, that burning desire that can be in your heart for Me; I can give that to you. Seek Me and ye shall find.
