I saw the world in total darkness, the kind of darkness where you can't see your hand in front of your eyes. Each of us held a lit torch above our heads. We were clustered in a group. It was absolutely essential to keep our individual torch lit brightly. It had to have its source from deep within.

I saw similar clusters in every corner of the earth holding steady. Heavenly messengers patrolled the earth imparting life and encouragement to each individual member to keep their torches burning brightly. It was essential as ones without a torch were being drawn to the light of the clusters.

I felt a deep urgency and also a deepening thanksgiving for each torch, for each cluster, and for His Spirit within to keep them ignited.
