Prophecy by Mike Triplett

Oh mercy; mercy, mercy. Mercy rejoices against judgment; yea, who can understand the depths of My mercy? You cannot earn, you cannot pay for, you cannot hope to gain what My mercy has attained for you. Oh mercy, oh mercy. Mercy rejoices against judgment; mercy is in My name. Mercy is how I lead you, and all that you have is from My mercy. Mercy will lead you in darkness, and My mercy shall sustain thee. My mercy will endure forever. My mercy is given unto thee; so, rejoice, rejoice, rejoice in My mercy; rejoice in My mercy.

Such a time as this that you are living in. Be still and know that I am God. If you are willing, I will lead you in the way you are to go. Stay close to Me for the times will only get more evil, but I am God and My way is perfect.

And I say, Look for Me, saith the Lord. Look for me in every crack and crevice. Look for Me in every nook and cranny. Look for Me in the sunshine and the rain; look for Me. Look for Me in the little things and the big things. Find Me. Look for Me. Seek Me with your whole heart and you will find Me, and I will be found of you and I will find you. But don't sweep away those things that you think, Oh no, but look for My presence, look for My life in everything in every way and in every step you take.

For the Lord says, I hear you sing to Me that you'll never know the cost, but you will know the cost because you sing, we come to worship and to give our all. I hear you sing, I say yes, yes, yes. I'm asking you now, I'm requiring of you now, to know the cost, to come and give your all, and to say yes, yes, yes. There are things coming upon the earth where you are required to give your all, and your all is that you would lay your life down, that you would lay down your desires, your stand, your right; that you would lay those down and come humbly before Me in love and you can say, yes, yes, yes to My love for all people, that you will not have hearts of hate; you will not have hearts that bear evil for one another, that you will be able to lay your life down, that you will be able to know the cost and say, Father, forgive them for they know not what they do. I require it of the sons; I require it of My sons. I hear you say, yes, yes and I require it of you.

For thus saith the Lord, you are a chosen generation, a holy nation, a priesthood of a royal line, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light, but are now, now, now the people of God.

Prophecy by Ellen Compton

For in silence, you become open and in your openness before Me, I can minister to you things that when you're occupied and busy with other things, you cannot receive. So, count this as a time of openness to receive what I have for you this day.

Prophecy by Michele Clay

For I would say unto you that even silence praises Me. Even silence can turn your hearts toward Me; just to sit in silence. There's nothing wrong with silence; there's nothing wrong with being still before Me. Silence can be golden. In silence, there's nothing wrong with silence.

I saw dark, thick clouds, representing the power of God, cover a map of the United States. It was a cloud of protection. The center states were covered but the East and West Coasts were not covered and protected.

I saw the Lord standing on the four corners of our country. I could hear complaining and fighting. Then I heard the words, "Be still and know that I am God." Everything became still. Then I heard the words, "Let the cry of Trump's heart be, 'Be it unto me according to Thy will.'"
